World Antimicrobial Awareness Week (WAAW) Symposium: 18 November 2022

The National Centre for Antimicrobial Stewardship (NCAS) is convening a World Antimicrobial Awareness Week symposium on Friday 18 November, hosted by the Peter Doherty Institute for Infection and Immunity in Melbourne, Victoria. Further details of the symposium, which is to be both face-to-face and virtual, can be found at https://www.ncas-australia.org/antimicrobial-awareness-week-2022.

A series of free online workshop webinars is associated with the symposium. Details for these events, which will be held from Monday 21 to Thursday 24 November, can also be found on the symposium website.

The theme for the symposium and workshop webinars is 'A learning health systems approach to antimicrobial stewardship'.
