

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Australian Sports Wagering Scheme Advisory Group

Purpose

The Australian Sports Wagering Scheme (ASWS) Advisory Group brings together individuals with relevant expertise and experience to provide advice and guidance on the establishment of the ASWS to the Sports Integrity Taskforce.

Roles and responsibilities

- Contribute industry experience and expertise to the development and establishment of the ASWS.
- Consider discussion papers prepared by the Sports Integrity Taskforce and provide strategic advice on matters identified.
- Provide advice on sector expectations and related risks and opportunities.
- Assist in advancing more complex elements of establishing the ASWS by acting as a 'sounding board' for the Sports Integrity Taskforce on such matters.
- In the spirit of open and candid consultation, recognise they will have access to materials that are not yet public and treat those materials with the appropriate discretion.

Membership and Context

Membership of the ASWS Advisory Group represents a broad range of stakeholders including from national sporting organisations, state and territory wagering regulators, sports wagering providers, and state departments of sport and recreation.

The work of the ASWS Advisory Group will be closely linked to the work of a working group comprising Commonwealth, state and territory gambling regulators and policy officials. It is anticipated that in many cases the ASWS Advisory Group will consider proposals initially developed by the Taskforce in close collaboration with this working group.

Officials/Advisors, sourced primarily from Sports Integrity Steering Committee Agencies, will be available to assist the Advisory Group's deliberations and to explain and provide context for the proposals under consideration.

Secretariat support will be provided by the Taskforce.

Meeting frequency

The ASWS Advisory Group will meet as required where input and/or comments on key project deliverables are needed. Meetings will take place either in person or via teleconference.

Proxies and Changes of Membership

Members of the ASWS Advisory Group have been selected based on their expertise and experience in their field, as such, it is preferable that members do not delegate others to participate in meetings on their behalf.

Where a Member of the ASWS Advisory Group is no longer able to participate, decisions regarding a replacement will be made by the Sports Integrity Steering Committee.