and Aged Care

Application for permission to supply pharmaceutical benefits following bankruptcy or external administration

Purpose of this form

Complete this form to apply to the Australian Government Department of Health and Aged Care (department) for permission under section 91B of the National Health Act 1953 (Act) to supply pharmaceutical benefits following bankruptcy of an approved pharmacist or external administration of a pharmacy.

Important information

A separate application must be made for each premises where the applicant seeks to supply pharmaceutical benefits.

Where a pharmacist who is a member of a partnership becomes bankrupt, unless all partners are bankrupt, an application should not be made for permission under section 91B of the Act.
