

Commonwealth Games Federation

Presentation by

The Hon. Michael Fennell OJ., CD
President

4th Meeting of Commonwealth Sports Ministers

9th August 2008

Beijing

People's Republic of China

Commonwealth Games Federation

- Africa 18 CGAs
- Americas 6
- Asia 8
- Caribbean 15
- Europe 10
- Oceania 14

71 nations & territories (54 National Olympic Committees)

Celebrating the Commonwealth

The Friendly Games

Significant Growth

- Inaugural Games in 1930
- 11 independent nations & territories
- 72 independent nations & territories in 2002
- 71 in Melbourne in 2006
- Team sports introduced in 1998
- 10 sports in 1994 to 15 sports in 1998

A Games in demand

Leadership & Duty

- Duty to manage legacy
 - effectively & efficiently
- Responsible leadership
 - to stakeholders
 - safeguarding investment

Managing legacy, delivering a responsible Games

Government Support

- Partnership approach
- Grass roots development
- Importance of sport
- Making a difference:
 - society in general
 - to communities
 - individual lives

Recognising the importance & power of sport

Support in Action

- Bidding or hosting of Games'
- Building of sports facilities
- Education through sport
- Access to play & recreation
- Funding for training & competition
- Finance for sports science & medicine
- Fighting the scourge of doping

Investments, not costs

Commonwealth Youth Games

- 3rd edition – Pune, India
- 1,300 athletes & 400 officials
- 9 sports
- 71 nations & territories
- 12th – 18th October 2008

Athletes aged 18 & under

2011 Commonwealth Youth Games

- Isle of Man
- 7th –13th September 2011

- Hosting opportunity for all nations
- Affording NOCs experience ahead:
 - London 2012 Olympics
 - Glasgow 2014 Commonwealth Games

Isle of Man 2011

Managing environmental issues & legacies

Delivering a responsible Games

Legacy for Commonwealth Sport

- Travel grant provision
- Ensuring participation
- Legacies beyond Indian borders
- Education, knowledge & skills developed
- Inspiring tomorrow's athletes & officials

Uniting the Commonwealth through Sport

DELHI 2010[®]
XIX COMMONWEALTH GAMES

COME OUT AND PLAY

India awaits us all

- 17 sports, 17 days of world class action
- 71 nations & territories / over 6,300 athletes & officials
- Opportunities for trade & investment
- Networking platforms & new contacts
- Cultural understanding & connectedness
- Promotion of sport by example & via programmes

Enhancing the profile of the Commonwealth and your nation

Delhi – witnessing change

- Building of hospitals
- Improving water & electricity supplies
- Extensions to the Metro train system
- Building of new roads & flyovers
- Improvements to the airport

The Games – a catalyst for change

COMMONWEALTH GAMES
CGF
FEDERATION

Uniting the Commonwealth
through
Sport

The image features the logo of the Commonwealth Games Federation (CGF) on the left. The logo consists of a circular emblem with the text "COMMONWEALTH GAMES" at the top and "FEDERATION" at the bottom, with "CGF" in the center. To the right of the logo is a collage of three circular images: the top one shows a person holding a trophy, the middle one shows a night scene with fireworks, and the bottom one shows two athletes embracing. The bottom image shows a female athlete in a yellow and green uniform (Australia) and a male athlete in a red and black uniform (Kenya) embracing. The Kenyan athlete's bib reads "KENYA" and "MELBOURNE 2022".