

Email Submission: Raymond Allan

Dear regulators, please pause to allow further understanding of this technology before deregulating its use. The last thing we need is to move too quickly and create an event/consequence which cannot be undone.

I live in the country and deal with rabbits daily. We have seen what Cane Toads have done and while this technology is promising in both problems, we could easily create a situation which we cannot yet foresee.

with thanks
Raymond Allan