

Email Submission: Helen Dean

Dear Sir/Madam

This technology has enormous implications - some good, some potentially devastating to human life as we know it and life on earth more generally.

Please pause the use of CRISPR until we think through and catch up - and give all citizens a say in something that so profoundly impacts all of us.

Please do not let the potential for fast profit to rush decisions that will have profound, widespread and permanent consequences.

Sincerely
Helen Dean